

Go “Build-a” Fish Tables

Body Shape Types

Body Shape	Picture	Example Fish	Habitat and Speed	Cross-section
Fusiform		Tuna, shark	Open ocean, fast
Compressed		Angelfish, triggerfish, butterfly-fish	Many habitats, not constantly moving but short bursts of speed
Depressed		Skates, rays, flounder	Bottom dwellers, flight like swimming
Filiform		Eels	Holes and crevices, long thin body that moves like a ribbon

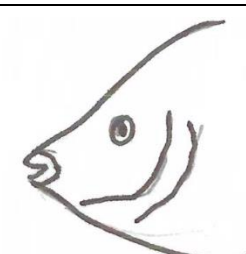

Go “Build-a” Fish Tables

Caudal Fin Types

Caudal Fin	Picture	Swim Speed	Habitat
Lunate, crescent		Fast, doesn't turn easily	Open ocean
Forked		Constantly moving, moderately fast	Open ocean, reef
Truncate, triangular		Strong swimmer but slower, short bursts of speed	Open ocean, reef
Rounded		Strong swimmer but slower, short bursts of speed	Open ocean, reef
Continuous		Weak swimmer, wriggling on bottom or through crevices	Open ocean, bottom

Go “Build-a” Fish Tables

Mouth Types

Type of Mouth	What it Eats	Picture
Beak-like	Crunches, could eat coral
Little mouth	Nibbling on small plants/animals or invertebrates, sometimes has teeth
Mouth near the top (superior)	Eating near the surface of the water or at least above the fish, sometimes has teeth
Mouth in the middle (terminal)	Eating directly ahead, algae eater, gulper, surrounds prey
Mouth on bottom	Sometimes has teeth, bottom feeder or strong biter.	